New Procedures in Place for This Year's Thursday Night Concerts at the Crossings

Newtonville, N.Y. –This year's Thursday Night Concerts at The Crossings series, which will kick off July 5, promises to be bigger than ever this year with an exciting mix of some of the region's most popular bands.

Because larger crowds are anticipated as a result, the Town of Colonie has instituted new policies and procedures designed to ensure the health and safety of all attending.

First, concerts can no longer be held rain or shine due to limited indoor room capacity at the park.

If a concert is cancelled due to anticipated rain, it will be announced to the media and posted on the concert Facebook page (Concert at The Crossings 2018 Summer Concert Series).

Concert-goers are also advised that no alcoholic beverages or glass containers will be permitted. Security personnel will have the right to inspect any bag, container, or package and confiscate illegal or prohibited items.

In addition, some concerts will be held in the parking area adjacent to the playground (where the Farmers' Market is held on Saturdays) rather than at the Gazebo. Concert parking will be available in designated areas.

Currently, the expanded location is anticipated for the Skeeter Creek concert on July 26 and the Hair of the Dog concert on August 16, but others may be added as warranted.

All concerts will be held from 6 pm to 8 pm. Attendees who wish should bring lawn chairs.

The free concert series is sponsored by Anjo Construction.
